- The CPP Accelerator Scholarships are open to all ASIS Members in good standing. Members of Women in Security and Young Professionals Councils are particularly encouraged to apply.
- The scholarship will include one CPP Certification Voucher good until April 1, 2019. The Certification Voucher enables the recipient to go online at no cost and apply for the certification exam. If approved, registrants will have two years to take the certification test. The Foundation Certification Voucher does not guarantee that the recipient is eligible to take the test. Test applicants must apply, be qualified, and if deemed eligible, sit for the exam. Please be sure to review the ASIS Board Certification Handbook and utilize the Self- Assessment Guide available on the ASIS certification web page. <https://www.asisonline.org/certify>
- Applicants must be committed to obtaining the CPP certification.
- Student members, national officers, ASIS directors, and relatives of the ASIS Foundation Board of Trustees are ineligible for this award.
- ASIS CPP Accelerator Scholarships sponsored by the ASIS Foundation are not transferable.

Subject to the ASIS Foundation stated scholarship criteria, winning applicants will be selected on an objective and non-discriminatory basis, without regard to race, age, gender, religion, political beliefs, employment status, or any other factors that constitute unfair or illegal discrimination.

Application materials should be emailed directly to your chapter at paul.jackson@nationalgrid.com.

Note: If selected for a scholarship, U.S. recipients will be required to complete an IRS W-9 form.
